CLUBS MUSIC WOMENS WORK

What thing a right line is the leaves a mark.
But how many that line, who is the right?
Of life and woman's lot, seems to be a What are all these human arts and lights
But a part of "art" in whose depths who cannot Of truth and only shadows and no ground.
Then if our art and power to make us better What shall we think they can in suffer make?
Life is the wisdom art to let the suffer Of small which men off for the world make In music and beauty building up dwell.
To make each science rather hard than sweet.

—Lord Brooks

session of their new home, formerly owned by the Dwight Davis in

Ever See a Steamboat With a Broken Back? Here's One?

A recent terrific wind and torrential rainstorm conspired to drive this Mississippi steamer on the mud flats. The old vessel, one of the last of the stern driver variety for which the Mississippi was once famous, has been abandoned by her owners to her fate. Her back is broken and her sides are all cracked. If another storm should come she will be ready for firewood.

BUILDING OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Permits Issued During May Are Well Over $1,000,000.
At the close of business Tuesday evening, $1,000,000 in building permits had been issued during May from the office of City Building Inspector H. E. Kopp, putting Tulsa in the front row of cities of the United States in the matter of building. City officials consider the record for May of outstanding importance because it was made during a month of unusual business conditions, when in most cities there was a constant cry of hard times.
That June will establish a similar record in local building annals is believed by Inspector Kopp. During the coming month he expects to in-sue permits for the Atlas Life Insurance building and for the new three-story building in course of construction by the board of education, as well as for several other large projects. The largest single permit issued during May was to Dan Hunt and represented $500,000.
All other permits were for private residences, garages, apartments and repairs to residences.
Douglas Will Spend Vacation on Coast Clarence B. Douglas, managing director of the chamber of commerce, expects to leave next week with Mrs. Douglas for Washington to spend 30 to 60 days studying with relatives and friends and in recovering his health. At the last meeting of directors of the chamber of commerce Douglas was granted a leave of absence until September 1, unless he has recuperated sufficiently to warrant his return to duty before that date.

No Decision Given on Bond Issue Here

No decision from the attorney general's office regarding the validity of the recent bond election here is expected until Attorney General J. F. Freeling returns from Washington to Oklahoma City. Freeling is now at the national capital on official business. City Attorney Frank E. Duncan has just returned from Oklahoma City where he presented the transcript of the election to Freeling's assistants. He was informed that it will be not less than two weeks before the transcript has been reviewed and either approved or disapproved by Freeling.

BARUCH INVITES A PROBE

Brands Charges That He Grafted as False and Cruel Political Lies.
WASHINGTON, May 31.—Branding as "heartless, cruel lies" charges that he made money out of copper sales while acting as chairman of the war industries board during the war, or that he personally used $15,000 allotted to the work of the economic section of the peace conference, Bernard M. Baruch, in a long letter to Senator Kenyon, republican of Iowa, today requested a congressional investigation of the charges "in the interest of decency and fair play."
Kenyon read the letter into the congressional record.
Portland Place, Miss Naomi Brown will remain here as the guest of friends until late in June. The Brown family expect to motor in the summer.

DeWitt's Sensational Offerings Have Taken the Town By Storm!

They Came! They Saw! They Bought!
—and why wouldn't they buy—when our already low prices are reduced they become actual bargains, of which every woman should take advantage. This most unusual sale has every element that goes into the composition of a really great mercantile event—savings are beyond precedent—the merchandise is brand new and of the most wanted character—the assortments are at their best—everything in this sale is worthy in quality, reliable, fashionable, intrinsically worth 100 cents on the dollar, but our stock is too heavy because of delay in getting our room ready for business, so what we lose is of very little concern to us. The idea is to sell these lines at once and all this week in every department we will present a broadside of values long to be remembered. Watch our windows every day—they'll tell the story on the price tickets much better than we can write it.

A Sale of Fine Silk Dresses in the Most Fashionable Fabrics and Colors

Inspired and encouraged by the appreciation which met our $15.00 Dress Sale we set to work to present a dress occasion in which ultra-fine frocks in the smartest fashions would be featured. Every one, without exception, is distinctive and beautiful. We looked at the dresses as they hung in the booths and tried our descriptive powers, but were defeated. There was more beauty than adjectives to fit it, more variety than modes of expression, so we extend an invitation to come and see the dresses.

THE SALE PRICES RANGE FROM $25 to $55
Which in Every Instance is Half or Less Than Their Actual Worth
